REED SUNAHARA, a 1989 graduate of UCLA, was a two-time All-American and three-time national champion as a player. He began his coaching career at his alma mater before traveling to Toledo for four seasons. Sunahara took over the Cincinnati Bearcat program in 2000 and elevated that program in his tenure there. Sunahara served as the top assistant for the U.S. National Team from March of 2013 to January of 2014, helping Team USA to a 25-6 record and a No. 2 world ranking at the time. He served as the head coach for Team USA during its Gold medal run at the 2012 Women's Pan American Cup in Juarez, Mexico, and was a NORCECA instructor, also guiding both the Jamaican National Team and the U-18 NORCECA Women's Continental Championship Team to Gold medals. Additionally, he led the U.S. Girls' Youth National Team to a Gold medal in the 2012 NORCECA Continental Championships in Tijuana, Mexico.
